ALBUM REVIEWS:

MUSIC WEEK

Album of the week.

'An essential bridge between Jazz and World music. Nuanced minimalism is paramount.'

THE GUARDIAN

'A truly current album, a real grower that gets right under your skin...This is the music for your own private Oscar-nominated movie...If I ran an awards scheme, I'd certainly give something to Miles_Gurtu'.

EVENING STANDARD

'Intelligent electronica with live-improv input'.

THE INDEPENDENT

'The sound of surprise. Music with focus and brains'. 2/3

THE TIMES

'The missing link between chill-out and the classic Jazz trio... Sounds new and remarkable...strange and delightful. This is a record that deserves to do well.' 4/5

JAZZWISE

Album of the Year

METRO

'Strange and extraordinary album...Musical cross-fertilisation, done right, is a terrific idea, and this shimmying, funky album proves it'. 4/5

TIMEOUT

'Skittery 'Bitches Brew'-style electronica, Squarepusher-ish cut-ups, Aphex-like bleepiness, Tortoise-esque electric funk, and touches of Mwandishi-like ambient drones, while maintaining a unique vision throughout'.

Q MAGAZINE	'Excellent' 4/5
HMV CHOICE	'Fabulous blend which defies description. Mightily impressive'.
GLOBAL RHYTHM	'Miles_Gurtu have created a gorgeous blend of Jazz and electronic music highlighted by Gurtu's masterful percussive voice and Miles' ambitious, dream-like production and inter-outer galaxarian keys, all set to the rhythm of any thrilling independent movie'. Miles creates the music of a fantasy, one that brings you fully out of yourself to then bring you back inside yourself'.
